Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of Group I (the instances wherein Z^1 is N) in the reply filed on December 20, 2006 is acknowledged.

Claims 17-19 and claims 1-16 (all in part, i.e., in formula (I) Z^1-Z^4 are other than as defined for Group I; or in formula (Ia) Z is CH; or in formula (Ib) Z^5 is CH) are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on December 20, 2006.

Applicant's election of the species of Example 275 is acknowledged. As the elected species was found in the prior art, the search and examination was limited to the species.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Kubo et al., WO 03/035638 (or the corresponding CAPLUS Abstract 138:353990, 2003). The instant claims read on reference disclosed compounds, see the compounds in pages 84-95, Tables 31-41. (See the compound of RN 521090-38-0 in the enclosed copy of CAPLUS Abstract).

Note: It is acknowledged that the instant application is a CIP of PCT/JP02/10937 filed October 22, 2002. Applicant cannot rely upon the priority benefit to overcome this rejection because a translation of the International application has not been made of record. See MPEP § 1895.01 [R-5]. "A certified copy of the international application (and an English translation) of the international application may be required by the examiner to perfect the claim for benefit under 35 U.S.C. 120 and 365(c) if the international application did not originate in the United States and such is necessary, for example, where an intervening reference is found and applied in a rejection of one or more claims".

Receipt is acknowledged of the Information Disclosure Statements filed on July 20 and December 9, 2004 and copies are enclosed herewith.
